

Horses and Heros

I would like to thank you for everything. Without your help I would not have been able to attend. The program itself helps veterans with the use of horses and can connections available to help. I loved the individual chats with the instructors on some of the horse exercises.

Thanks again for the great event!

Lawrence Karls

